Fabboli Cellars Unveils “Rosa Luna” at New Wine Release Event

Leesburg, VA, June 8, 2009 - Winemaker and owner, Doug Fabboli, will be releasing his first ever, highly anticipated “Rosa Luna” Rosé. This Rosé is harvested completely from local Sangiovese grapes and is the perfect match for a summer afternoon.

Fabboli Cellars will be hosting the new wine release event on Sunday June 14, from 1:00pm to 3:00pm. This event is open to the public and Speakeasy club members. Entrance fees will be $20/ per person and free access to Speakeasy club members along with a guest as part of the membership. Entrance fees include a complimentary glass of the new wine, tastings of all other Fabboli wines, appetizers, and a wonderful smoked salmon prepared by Chef Rick Zapka.

Doug Caldwell, Wholesale Manager of Fabboli Cellars said, “Dry Rosés are the up and coming ‘new’ wine. “Rosa Luna” will be available at Vintage 50 and a few other select locations.”

For additional information on the event and/or the “Rosa Luna” contact Scott Robertson at 703.771.1197 or visit www.fabboliwines.com.
